

September 27 — October 5, 2025

Blue Star Welcome Week recognizes the 600,000 military families who move into new communities each year. The goal of this special week is to improve their sense of belonging in the communities where they live and serve. We can do this by helping them create strong connections with their local neighbors.

Join the movement. Let's welcome them home! bluestarwelcomeweek.org

findout

donate

